Farmers

Furrows A farmer is known by his furrow as "the carpenter is known by his chips." It takes a firm hand and a true eye to turn a straight furrow. No wonder the furner weurs out, spite of exercise and fresh air. One day's work on the farm would tire many a trained athlete. And the farmer works hardest of all. The first up and the last to bed, feeding his team before he feeds himself, his work is practically never done. Why does not the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates? He pats back in phosphale what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor. If he does not, he will soon complain of "poor health." The great value of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its vitalwears out, spite of exercise and fresh air content actual biscovery is in its vital-izing power. It gives strength to the stomach, life to the lungs, purity to the blood. It supplies Nature with the sub-stances by which she builds up the body, just as the farmer supplies Nature with the substances that bind up the crops. "I write to tell you of the great be-ceived from the use of Dr. Pierce's Gol-leaf Discovery," write: Mr. C. B. Bird side, Pubman Co., W. Va. "If caned no

It is true that the plat form also contains a specific declaration for free coinage, but it is equally tru that there can be no free coinage as long as the Senate is controlled the Republicans. The highest at therities on finance in the Republican party have agreed that the currency egislation enacted at the last session of Congress will maintain the gold standar as long as the act remains on the statute books. The law cannot be revealed a dent and House check free coinage long as the Republicans are in the ma jority in the Senate. Free coinage. therefore, in this campaign, is scarcely more than an academie question. I was a political blumler to put the silver declaration in the Kansas City platform but its presence in the platform does no make it a live question. With a goldstandard Senate to hold a silver Presicertainly not a practical issue for the time being. The platform of 1895 related exclusively to domestic questions. The platform of 1900 makes wars of conquest, forcible annexation of territory and imperial tendencies in governmen the paramount issue. CROSS-BRED HOGS SAID TO BE THE BEST FOR GENERAL PURPOSES

While the pure bred pig may be the best for the fancy breeder and represents the highest standard, the cross of a pure bred on common stock will give the best results in ordinary farming. This is a matter that leaves little room for doubt, and the most successful farmers make the most by judiciously crossing in this way. The pure bred does not in one case in a hundred possess all those qualities of hardiness and power of growth essential to general use. A good deal of the fancy stock is anything but suited to the ordinary narmers' needs, and it is a mustake for any professional breeder to attempt to handle them alone. There 14, of course, a difference in the fancy breeds for crossing, and one must certamly use good judgment in this work I think, however, says a writer in Amer wan fultirator, few will dispute me when I say that a farmer will always be safe in getting Berkshires and Poland-Clinas These two breeds seem to b the general favorites in this country for good and sufficient reasons. Both breeds will give good and quick results, and when ted liberally and pushed to their utmost they will yield very similar results. Now, to my way of tlinking, a cross between these breeds will prove of even more value, han either breed alone Although somewhat similar in their manner of developing and fattening, these breeds have then special qualities which really distinguish them more than any external mark. The tendency of young Berkshire pigs, when turned into clover fields and fed only a little teed through the summer, is to grow lean and lank, forming a fine carciass for fattening purposes later. This tendency to learness, however, is sometimes tomuch emphasized to suit the farmer, and he wishes he could retorm t Now cross with the Poland China will show just this reform needed. The cross wil hold up better under summer feeling than the pigs of either breed. In cross ing any breed it is always well to know just what you are doing. The parents may not be pure-bred, but their ancestry should be pretty well known. To take any kind of a bog and cross it with a pure-bred mate is to bring into existence an uncertainty. The pigs may prove satisfactory and again they may not. The risk is almost too great to run. It is not a difficult or expensive matter to secure good hogs for breeding and often the crosses between god breeds can be obtained at little less ex pense than crosses between common worthless pigs - In selecting the animals the qualities of the parents must be comadered from another standpoint. Not every breed makes good mothers and this is majortant. We know Be kinne sows to the excellent mothers and they
